

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2275 - SB 2465

February 5, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Expands the category of vehicles operating for hire who transport passengers to include not only those operating within 15 miles of a municipality but also those operating not more than 50 miles beyond the county line. Such vehicles would get at a reduced rate Bus C plates rather than commercial bus registration plates.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes:

- the cost of a commercial bus registration plate can range from $36.50 to $291.50.
- under the provisions of this act some vehicles transporting passengers for hire will be eligible for Bus C plates at an average cost of $46.50.
- the resulting decrease in revenues is estimated to be not significant.
